

Harbor City-Lomita Methodist Church Breaks Tradition with Time Schedule

A startling break with tradition is noted in the change of worship hours announced by the Harbor City-Lomita Methodist Church effective March 12. Divine Worship will be conducted at 9 a.m. and at 10:15 a.m. in the new schedule.

In announcing the new hours of worship, the Rev. Clarence E. Spier, Jr., Pastor, stated that the change was requested by the Commission on Education in an effort to provide greater opportunities for persons to participate in both Church School and the worship activities of the Church.

Lowell Benfer, church school superintendent, reported that Church School classes will be conducted for boys and girls through the 6th grade at 9 a.m. All grades of children and also Junior High youth will meet at 10:15 a.m. Senior High youth and Adults 11:15 to 12 noon. Nursery will hold their sessions at 9 a.m.-12 noon.

The congregation will observe the sacrament of Holy Communion and "One Great Hour of Sharing" in its inauguration of the new worship hours. Simultaneously with

Greyfriars Church Tells Activities

Worship services are now conducted regularly at 22511 S. Figueroa, Torrance, for Greyfriars Orthodox Presbyterian Church. Times of worship are 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. every Sunday. Bible School starts at 9:45 a.m.

This week the prayer meeting and choir practice will be held on Thursday, beginning at 7 o'clock.

On Friday evening the young people are holding their first banquet. Plans and program for the dinner are in charge of Bob Pope and his teen age Sunday school class. The Greyfriars Women's Guild will serve the dinner.

The pastor, Dr. David Calderwood, will preach next Sunday morning on: "Jesus Christ, fulfilling prophecy."

most of the major religious bodies the one Great Hour of Sharing provides funds through a special offering for emergency overseas relief and other critical projects.

The Communion Meditation announced by the Rev. Mr. Spier will be based on Jesus' Parable of "The Leaven," the seventh in his series of sermons on the Parables.

"We extend a hearty welcome," stated Mrs. R. E. Frazier, Chairman of the Commission on Education, "to the entire community to worship with us in this new schedule. We anticipate a considerable increase in attendance and growth through the greater facility for family worship."

Deltas Meet

Members of the South Bay Chapter of Delta Zeta Alumnae will meet Tuesday, March 14, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. J. L. Miller, 902 W. Javelin St., Torrance.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Viola Noble, a member of Robinson's interior decorating staff. As part of her program, Mrs. Noble will display new imports from Germany.

Trail Blazers

A rummage sale will be held by the Mother's Club of Girl Scout Troop 2372 on Thursday, April 6th, at 114 South Pacific, San Pedro.

Clean out your garage and closets and let us have all of your rummage. Dishes, appliances, clothing, shoes, papers, rags, comic books, etc. Even one item would be appreciated.

Drop off stations are: 4804 and 4919 Laurette, 5004 Jacques, and 22109 Ellinwood, Torrance. For pickup information, call FR 1-5409, FR 1-1328, and FR 1-3101 and FR 1-4767.

Keep these numbers handy and give us a call. The money that is earned from this sale will go toward sending the girls in Troop 2372 to Scout Camp.

Sharing Hour Set at Seaside

On March 12, One Great Hour of Sharing Sunday, the sermon topic at Seaside Community Church 230th St. and Ocean Ave., will be "Custodians of Religion."

The chancel choir, directed by Mrs. C. L. Martin will sing "A Balm in Gilead" as their morning anthem at the 10 a.m. worship service. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Parker at the Organ. Child care is provided for children under 8.

On Wednesday, March 15, Rev. Wm. Schatz will continue the meditations on the Life of Christ. "Conflict" is the title of the film this evening.

It tells of the increasing political intrigue in Jerusalem which eventually results in the crucifixion. Despite an attempt by the Temple guards to arrest Jesus, his concern is still for others, like Mary and Martha and the young man born blind. He instructs the Apostles and sends them out on their first missionary journey.

The Mens Quartette will present "Were You There" as the special music for the 7:30 p.m. service.

One of the most fundamental changes to effect our country in this century is the increase of 47 per cent in average life expectancy. Average life expectancy at birth rose by over 22 years in this country between 1900 and 1959

Local Listener Loses But Wins

Norma Barretta of 17691 Yukon Ave., Torrance, lost her chance of winning a free record album when she failed to stump KBIG disc jockey Joe Niagara with a favorite tongue-twister. But by losing she did win an album for the Girls Club of San Diego at 645 A St., San Diego.

On his 6 to 10 a.m. broadcast over the Catalina station, Niagara invites listeners to send him tongue-twisters which he reads at top speed three times. If he stumbles, the listener wins the album. If he succeeds, a charitable institution gets it.

Title of the contest, naturally, is "Niagara Falls."

Revival Services Continue At Narbonne Baptist Church

Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church of Lomita will continue their Revival Services through Sunday. The preacher for these special services is Robert D. Hughes, pastor of the First Southern Baptist Church of Long Beach. He will speak each evening at the service that begins at 7 p.m. He will also be the speaker for the 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. service on Sunday.

Music Director for the Revival has been Edwin T. Isbell. Mr. Isbell is Minister of Music for the local church.

Special music has been a feature of every service.

Nursery is provided at every service for children 3 years old and under. The evening service begins at 7 p.m.

Sunday is High Attendance Day. A goal of 655 has been set for the Sunday School according to Hugh Dooley, Sunday school superintendent. The Training Union Director, Dave Newman has announced a goal of 251 for Sunday at 6:30 p.m.

Week of March 13-19 has been designated as Home Mission Week. A daily time of prayer has been announced by Mrs. Claire Weyworth, W.M.U. president.
